

I like NJ's Do Not Call law the way it is. Please do not tamper with it.

If I want to buy goods or services, I call the company I want to deal with. I do not want anyone calling me about things I do not need or want. It is annoying. Even if I am their customer already, they do not need to call me. I will call them when I want to.